

Avangrid Renewables' Privacy Notice for California Residents

Last Reviewed: January 14th, 2021

This privacy note applies to Avangrid Renewables, LLC and its subsidiaries (“Avangrid Renewables”).

Avangrid Renewables is dedicated to protecting the personal information it collects and processes. This notice applies solely to residents of the State of California and provides specific information as required under the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA” or the “Act”). CCPA requires us to provide California residents information about, among other, the personal information we collect and their rights under CCPA. This notice is intended to meet the requirements of the Act. Any terms defined in the CCPA have the same meaning when used in this notice.

This Notice does not apply to employment-related personal information collected from Avangrid Renewables' California-based employees, officers, job applicants, contractors, or similar individuals. Where noted in this notice, the CCPA temporarily exempts personal information reflecting a written or verbal business-to-business communication (“B2B personal information”) from some its requirements.

Under the CCPA, “personal information” is any information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a resident or household.

Please be aware that other sites accessible through Avangrid Renewables' website have their own privacy policies and data collection, use, and disclosure practices. The information practices of those other sites linked to Avangrid Renewables' website are not covered by this notice.

PROFILES AND INFERENCES: Inferences drawn from any of the information identified above to create a profile about a resident reflecting the resident's preferences, and characteristics.	NO	NO	NO

Personal information does not include:

- Publicly available information from government records.
- Deidentified or aggregated consumer information.
- Information excluded from the CCPA's scope, like:
 - health or medical information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA) or clinical trial data;
 - personal information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) or California Financial Information Privacy Act (FIPA), and the Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994.

We obtain the categories of personal information listed in the chart above from the following categories of sources:

- Directly from you: For example, from forms you complete and from email correspondence with you.
- Third Parties (information we collect about you from third party sources): For example, real estate transactions in California.

Use of Personal Information

We may use or disclose the personal information we collect for one or more of the following purposes:

- Maintenance, development and control, in all its aspects, of the contractual relationship.
- Internal management of third parties.
- Preparation of surveys, statistics and internal reports.
- Collection and payment management.
- Administrative management.

- Management of the coordination of business activities and prevention of occupational hazards of contractors and health and safety.
- Submission of tax information.
- In connection with administrative and judicial proceedings and actions before public authorities.
- Management of complaints and inquiries in the ethical channel, analysis of possible conflicts of interest and analysis of solvency, anti-corruption, fraud or related risks.
- Security activities.
- In case of the email of the contact person with Avangrid Renewables, to apply a dual authentication factor in the access to the information systems consisting of adding a second method of user verification.
- To keep the track record of previous agreements.
- To comply with applicable legal or regulatory requirements, legal process or orders from regulatory agencies and responding to government, judicial or regulatory requests.
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all our assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which personal information held by us is relevant for the transaction.
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to you when collecting your personal information or as otherwise set forth in the CCPA.

Sharing of Personal Information

We disclose personal information to services providers and other persons for a business purpose.

The categories of personal information that we have disclosed within the last 12 months have been identified in the chart included in the Personal Information We Collect section of this notice. For each category of personal information identified, we may disclose and have disclosed within the last 12 months, personal information with the following categories of persons: (i) service providers, (ii) affiliates (consistent with applicable laws and regulations), (iii) federal, state and local government and regulatory agencies with authority to receive the information, and (iv) third parties receiving personal information pursuant to a valid legal warrant, subpoena, court order or legal or regulatory mandate, or as necessary for Avangrid Renewables to exercise or defend legal claims.

In the preceding 12 months, we have not sold personal information.

California Residents Rights

The CCPA provides consumers (California residents) with specific rights regarding their personal information. This section describes your CCPA rights and explains how to exercise those rights.

Do-Not-Sell: We do not sell your personal information.

Notice at Collection of Personal Information: We are required to notify California residents, at or before the point of collection of their personal information, the categories of personal information collected and the purposes for which such information is used.

Verifiable Requests for Right of Deletion, Right to Know and Data Portability: Subject to certain business and legal exceptions, California residents have the right to make the following requests, at no charge:

Right of Deletion: The right to request deletion of their personal information that we have collected about them, subject to certain business and legal exceptions and exemptions, and to have such personal information deleted, except where necessary that we maintain such personal information to:

- Complete the transaction or agreement for which the personal information was collected, provide a good or service requested by the consumer, or reasonably anticipated within the context of a business's ongoing business relationship with the consumer, or otherwise perform a contract between the business and the consumer.
- Detect security incidents, protect against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity; or prosecute those responsible for that activity.
- Debug to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality.
- Exercise free speech, ensure the right of another consumer to exercise his or her right of free speech, or exercise another right provided for by law.
- Comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act pursuant to Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1546) of Title 12 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.
- Engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific, historical, or statistical research in the public interest that adheres to all other applicable ethics and privacy laws, when the businesses' deletion of the information is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of such research, if the consumer has provided informed consent.
- Enable solely internal uses that are reasonably aligned with the expectations of the consumer based on the consumer's relationship with the business.
- Comply with a legal obligation.

- Otherwise use the consumer's personal information, internally, in a lawful manner that is compatible with the context in which the consumer provided the information.

Please note that the great majority of personal information we collect falls into the foregoing exemptions.

We do not provide these deletion rights for B2B personal information.

Right to Know and Data Portability: (Up to twice every 12 months) the right to request that we provide them certain information about how we have handled their personal information in the prior 12 months, including the:

- categories of personal information collected about the consumers;
- categories of sources from which the personal information is collected;
- the business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling that personal information;
- categories of third parties to whom we have disclosed their personal information;

(Up to twice every 12 months) California residents have the right to request that we disclose the specific pieces of personal information that we have collected about them in the prior 12 months and to have this delivered, free of charge, either (a) by mail or (b) electronically in a portable and, to the extent technically feasible, readily useable format that allows the individual to transmit this information to another entity without hindrance. For security reasons, certain highly sensitive types of personal information, such as social security numbers, drivers' license numbers, and bank account numbers, will not be provided but we will inform you if we may have collected them during such 12-month period.

We do not provide these access and data portability rights for B2B personal information.

Right to Opt-Out of the Sale of Personal Information: CCPA grants the right to opt-out from the sale of personal information. Avangrid Renewables does not sell personal information.

Submitting Verifiable Requests: Requests to exercise the right to deletion, right to know and data portability rights may be submitted at <https://www.avangridrenewables.com/ccpa> by completing the CCPA Request form, by contacting us toll-free at 866.441.4557 or via email at CCPARightsRequests@avangrid.com. We will respond to verifiable requests received from California consumers as required by law.

Only the California resident, or someone legally authorized to act on his/her behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to their personal information. California residents may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of their minor children. To designate an authorized agent, please contact at us CCPARightsRequests@avangrid.com with the executed power of attorney.

The verifiable consumer request must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative, which may include your Avangrid vendor number.
- Describe the request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We cannot respond to a request or provide the personal information if we cannot verify the identity of the California resident or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information relates to the California resident that requested the information.

Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us.

We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request.

Incentives and Discrimination: The CCPA prohibits discrimination against California residents for exercising their rights under the CCPA and imposes requirements on any financial incentives offered to California residents related to their personal information.

Discrimination: Businesses may not discriminate against residents who exercise their rights under CCPA. Discrimination may exist where a business denies or provides a different level or quality of goods or services, or charges (or suggests that it will charge) different prices or rates or impose penalties on residents who exercise their CCPA rights, unless doing so is reasonably related to the value provided to the business by the residents' data.

Disclosure of Incentives: If businesses offer any financial incentives for the collection, sale or deletion of their personal information, residents have the right to be notified of any financial incentives offers and their material terms, the right not be included in such offers without prior informed opt-in consent, and the right to be able to opt-out of such offers at any time. Businesses may not offer unjust, unreasonable, coercive or usurious financial incentives. We do not offer any such incentives at this time.

Changes to our Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to amend this privacy notice at our discretion and at any time. When we make changes to this privacy notice, we will post the updated notice on the Website and update the notice's effective date.
